NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

NEW-YORK, MONDAY, DEC. 24

For Europe.
The next number of The Tribuse for Europea circulation will be issued on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. It will contain all the latest news received up to the time of going to press. The Hibernia sails from this port on Wednesday.

The costest has not ended as we hoped, bu there is reason to be glad that it is over, and that the regular business of Congress can begin. Certainly no occasion exists for the Whig party to regret the manner of its defeat. It has failed to elect the Speaker because it would not resign it self to the ultra Southern influence, instead standing where it has always stood, on the grout of freedom and fidelity to the Constitution. It has been beaten for refusing to sign a virtual renunciation of its opposition to the spread of Stave ry, a point as to which the Loco-Focos had no thing to resign, and concerning which they, a course, could have no scruples.

The Whige might have elected the Speaker they have been brought to agree upon a man opposed. with a name, antecedents and geographical position of the right stripe according to the standar of Slavery propagandists. As it is, they have been defeated on a man who goes against Slavery extension; their opponents have chosen a man who goes for it. Let the free people of the North judge between them.

This whole struggle has turned upon Slavery. and has brought out a new phase of the In times past we have heard a great deal of the folly of hair-brained Northern fanatio who have agitated the subject. Now the fanaticism is on the other side. The agitation comes from the opposite quarter. Slavery is in the field with its armer on to frighten down and over ride all opposition.

And not content with carrying on a manly com bat, it seeks in every trifle an occasion for an onset. It aspires to dictate in the lowest things well as the greatest, and will not be satis fied with less than the same absolute control which it exercises on its own plantations. It sets up unheard of and monetrous rules of orthodoxy and lets nothing pass that will not adapt itself to that measure. Now we say in all frankness to Southern gentlemen that this is an unwise course in every point of view. They do not gain by it one single advantage. They frighten nobody and add nothing to their own strength. They do nothing to ensure the extension of Slavery into New Mexico. indeed they can do nothing to bring the Northern People to assent to that; and at the same time they provoke new sectional animosities which will be hard to obliterate. Possibly they cannot help doing this they are in an unfortunate position any set of men who in this age attempt to defend and propagate Blavery are so; but we assure them that they are making the most calamitous defense possible for their own cause. This we d not regret in itself, but in losing that cause they may lose other things for which others as well as themselves may hereafter have reason to be sorry. However, there is no great likelihood that the will heed our counsel, but as a prominent featur of the times their recent movements excite a feel ing beyond cariosity and anxiety. Of Mr. Cobb as Speaker, we have already expressed our opinion. He is the best man of the Loco-Foco or Siavery extension party.

-Of course we shall now have the Message t publish to morrow morning, unless some demostration occurs to prevent.

Great Britain on this Continent.

We notice in one or two organs of Loco Foo ism the assertion that the Administration design to sacrifice the honor of the country to British pre tensions upon the question now raised in Central Though we do not assume to have and special intelligence as to the purpose which the President and his Cabinet entertain in that mat ter, we think we may venture to reassure these anxious gentlemen. Of all people in the world they ought the least to be terrified by the calmness moderation with which the negotiations to ensue on the arrival of Sir Henry Bulwer have been approached at Washington. Nobody has had so much experience as they in gasconade and bluster, elinging small at the mement of trial. They would do well to remember 54040' and never again speak aloud about compromising the dignity of the

We cherish no fears either that our national shall be brought into any serious difficulty wi England on the other. There can be no reason for doubt that when the subject comes to be treated at first hands it will undergo a different sort of management with a more reasonable result tha it could expect if left to the decision of secondary agents. Whatever differences may appear be tween the two governments are of a nature to b amicably arranged as alone suits the position which the parties hold in the world. Moreover both Maine and Oregon show that neither the United States nor England have a passion for get ting at loggerheads with each other. Both na tions have too much good sense to perpetrate the absurdity of going to war without the extrement necessity, or not to obviate peaceably such a ne ceasity, should it arise. We are no admirers of the foreign policy England, especially Central America, though we cannot see with what consistency it is assailed by the party which annexed Texas, and made the Mexican war, and which waits with Impatie greediness for the United States to follow out its "manifest destiny." The instinct which has prompted the spread of British Colonial possessions, even at the expense of violating some of the principles of strict public morality, is certainly as respectable as that which has lately enlarged or ewa borders. What we have done for the pur pose of extending and strengthening Slaverypurpose destined to ultimate defeat - England has done for another end, which, were her case ours we should say was to give new spheres to the amb tion and activity of freemen; as it is, we say it was to enable her traders and manufacturers to make more money. Any way, we do not appreciate ou right to call her bad names. The main point to be discussed between & Henry Bulwer and the Secretary of State wi prebably be the Ship Canal through Nicarague As for the insult to our flag committed by direction of Mr. Chatfield, should it finally appear that such an event has happened, there can of course be no hesitation on the part of the English Minister is making all proper apologies; as to the island of Tigre, we do not know that we need it, or that we have really obtained a lawful title to it; but if it is rightly cars, there will be no effective trouble made bout our keeping it. Nor is it to be supposed that the canal question will be hard to settle, though some persons take the ordering of a Brit sh flee to the coast,-a perfectly natural measure,-to eminous of a quarrel. All that England or a y other power can want, is that the use of the canal should be guaranteed on equal terms to all nations, and certainly, neither the honor nor the ability of the United States require enything else. Where then is the ground for apprehension ! It exists we are told in the fact that the Roglish are determined to have a foothold in Central America, and for that purpose have trumped up the Mosquito protectorate on one coast while they seized the territory of Honduras upon the other. Admitting all this to be true, what

-The doctrine of Mr. Monroe that no new for eign colonies shall be permitted on this continent ppears to us more specious than tenable. It is a sort of extended Nativism, and Nativism on the large scale is little better than on the small. We can conceive of some new colonies which we could see founded on this continent with great satisfaction either by England or Germany. It would be no

Dinner to the Hangarians. On Saturday eyening last a dinner was give ciety's Featival where they were for a short tim was served in an elegant and abundant manne in true German fashion, in a style of conkery no ten met with out of Vienna, and worthy even of that city, famous for its good living.

After the first business of the dinner was over. D HENRY RISLER rose and delivered a poem to German (the language of all the speeches made during the eve ng) which was received with well merited applicate in it he hade the strangers welcome to America, dwe on the great contest in which they had been argaged declared the immortality of the principles for which they had struggled, and foretold a new and triumphan rising of the oppressed nations of Europe

Gov. Usuary responded to this address in a speech of some length, and equally admirable for its matter and manner. He was grateful for the cordiality wit which they had been received. The sympathies is vished toward them since their arrival on the shores of this tree and glorious land almost made them forge their afficulous. This was a country they had long been they had long ago learned to know and admire in Huthe fewest bludrances laid upon his progress toward yet more perfect conditions. He had always been a admirer of America : the great men of it, early history were his great men ; he had long looke to its organization as the ideal for a free people; and in urging Republican truth upon the convictions of his friends in Hungary behad in years past often said that it he should find that to be a practical republican were impossible in their Fatherland he would be one i because a freer country. > The decision of the Court of Appeals in the case of the North-American Trust Company will be made public on the 18th inst (Wednesday.) Of course so one knows what the decision will be, but we mention it to predict that it will be unanimous in favor of the stockholders, and that not only the trust will be declared invalid, but also the bonds as a common debt against the Company. This case involves only a small trust-some $250,000, we believe, but it settles the principle upon which all the other trusts are defend ed, and it is generally thought there will be an amies ble arrangement of those trusts in preference to push-ing the suits to the Court of last resert. The Receiver has in his bands nearly $1,800,000 of cash and cash sasets, most of them bearing interest, which will come to the stockholders in case of a favorable issue of these suits. The actual amount of stock now out is, as goorly as can be accertained, short of $2,800,000, upon which the above assets would make a dividend of about 65 per cent. It is thought that should the decision give the above suits to the stockholders the stock would immediately advance to 25 or 30 per cent. Still, the experience of the Street has been that the anticipation of an event supposed to be favorable to a stock, bas hed
